PART 1312 — IMPORTATION AND EXPORTATION OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES

EXPORTATION OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES

§1312.29 Domestic release prohibited.

An exporter or a forwarding agent acting for an exporter must either deliver the controlled substances to the port or border, or deliver the controlled substances to a bonded carrier approved by the consignor for delivery to the port or border, and may not, under any other circumstances, release a shipment of controlled substances to anyone, including the foreign consignee or his agent, within the United States.
